Remuneration Policy

August 2020

The Madaster Foundation is governed by a Board of Directors, who receive input from an advisory board. All members of the board, both board of directors and advisory board, provide their services without any financial compensation.

Besides the Board of Directors and members of the advisory board, support staff is directly connected to and hired by the Madaster Foundation. The members of the support staff receive financial compensation for their services.

All activities are initiated and financed based on a yearly activity plan and budget.
